Important items of note:

The bus we'll use on the Thursday fieldtrip has room for 55 passengers. Only the first 55 people who register for the conference are guaranteed seating. Those who register later must arrange their own transportation. We'll attempt to contact those for whom seating is not guaranteed to ensure that you still wish to attend. So be sure to include a daytime phone number on your registration form.

Deer ticks have been seen at the reclaimed mine sites. You are strongly encouraged to bring your favorite tick and mosquito repellent. Repellent will not be provided by the organization.

Remember your boots and rain gear.

This is the twenty-second annual Indiana Water Resources Association Symposium. IWRA is a scientific and educational not-for-profit organization established to encourage interdisciplinary communication between persons working in all aspects of water resources. IWRA is an affiliate of the American Water Resources Association.
